Curriculum

English: We have been looking at the main features and format of a play-script. We had fun sharing short dialogue exchanges and talked about the need for stage directions. This will lead to the children writing scenes in groups to produce a class evacuee play.

Maths: The children have been investigating area and perimeter. They will apply their knowledge & understanding of this topic to draw plans of their own "Victory" gardens. Work on coordinates continues to expand their knowledge of countries involved in WW2. The children will use coordinates to locate cities on a map of Europe.
