

WISDOM OF THE WEEK...

A photograph of a small, single-story house with a brown roof and white trim, built on the very edge of a dark, layered rock cliff. The house is perched precariously, with its foundation directly on the rock. Below the cliff, a wide valley unfolds, featuring green fields, scattered trees, and a winding river. In the distance, blue mountains are visible under a clear, bright blue sky. The overall scene conveys a sense of stability and a strong foundation.

Opera of the Week

The Magic Flute opera embodies the principles of good versus evil, the good represented by the high priest Sarastro, and evil, by the Queen of the Night. The Queen has a daughter Pamina. Prince Tamino falls in love with Pamina's portrait. How silly!

'Have you guessed the riddle yet?' the Hatter said, turning to Alice again.

'No I give up,' Alice replied: 'what's the answer?'

'I haven't the slightest idea.' said the Hatter.

'It was a treacle well!' said the Dormouse.

'There's no such thing!' said Alice angrily.

'Sh! Sh!' remarked the Dormouse sulkily.

'If you can't be civil, you'd better finish the story for yourself!'

What storms have you faced in your life?

Why is Jesus
like a ROCK?

What is the most foolish thing you have ever done?
